BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION

Manatee County Procurement Division has completed a due diligence review and intends to procure Large Scale Project Proposal Reviewal from MarshWagner, Inc. without conducting a competitive solicitation process for the following reason(s):

Manatee County's expansion of the Southwest Water Reclamation Facility is a significant project that requires careful attention to detail. By enlisting the expertise of MarshWagner, Inc., the County aims to ensure that the Construction Manager at Risk contract, pre-construction services, and Guaranteed Maximum Prices (GMPs) meet fair and reasonable standards. With a focus on reviewing large-scale water/wastewater projects, MarshWagner, Inc. brings valuable experience to the table. Their ability to compare unit costs across various projects in the state helps the County make informed decisions and secure competitive pricing. By engaging MarshWagner, Inc. for the entirety of the process, from contract negotiation to project completion, Manatee County can expect cost savings, enhanced project quality, and improved scheduling. With a track record of successful collaborations with government agencies in Florida, the County can trust in MarshWagner, Inc.'s proven expertise to deliver results that benefit both the project and its residents.

Any company that believes it can provide this good/service, must submit detailed information about its good/service to the Manatee County Procurement Division at purchasing@mymanatee.org no later than March 12, 2025 for evaluation and consideration.
