The AIG Companies (AIG) believes that protecting your privacy is of critical importance. We feel that you should understand what nonpublic personal information we collect, how we use the information, and how we safeguard it. This statement describes the types of nonpublic personal information we collect and use to provide insurance products and services to our customers.

Collecting Information:

We collect nonpublic personal information to perform the services you have requested from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us, or our affiliates, or others;
- Information from consumer reporting agencies, such as credit, property inspection, motor vehicle, and claims activity reports; and
- Information received in handling claims.

Customer Information Shared with Others:

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law.

How We Protect your Nonpublic Personal Information:

We value your trust and handle information about you with care. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to employees, affiliates, or non-affiliates who need to know such information in order to provide products and services to you. We maintain physical, procedural, and electronic safeguards to protect our current and former customer nonpublic information.

Changes to our Privacy Policy:

This privacy policy applies to products or services provided for personal, family, or household purposes in the United States by the AIG Companies listed below. Although we may change this policy at any time, please rest assured that you will be notified of any changes as required by law.

Maintaining Accurate Information:

We also maintain procedures to ensure that the information we collect is accurate, up-to-date, and as complete as possible. If you believe the information we have about you in our records or files is incomplete or inaccurate, you may request that we make additions or corrections, or if it is feasible, that we delete this information from our files. Your request must be in writing, and you should mail your request, including your policy number, name, address, and phone number, to:

The AIG Companies (AIG) believes that protecting your privacy is of critical importance. We feel that you should understand what nonpublic personal information we collect, how we use the information, and how we safeguard it. This statement describes the types of nonpublic personal information we collect and use to provide insurance products and services to our customers.

Collecting Information:

We collect nonpublic personal information to perform the services you have requested from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms;
- Information about your transactions with us, or our affiliates, or others;
- Information from consumer reporting agencies, such as credit, property inspection, motor vehicle, and claims activity reports; and
- Information received in handling claims.

Customer Information Shared with Others:

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law.

How We Protect your Nonpublic Personal Information:

We value your trust and handle information about you with care. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to employees, affiliates, or non-affiliates who need to know such information in order to provide products and services to you. We maintain physical, procedural, and electronic safeguards to protect our current and former customer nonpublic information.

Changes to our Privacy Policy:

This privacy policy applies to products or services provided for personal, family, or household purposes in the United States by the AIG Companies listed below. Although we may change this policy at any time, please rest assured that you will be notified of any changes as required by law.

Maintaining Accurate Information:

We also maintain procedures to ensure that the information we collect is accurate, up-to-date, and as complete as possible. If you believe the information we have about you in our records or files is incomplete or inaccurate, you may request that we make additions or corrections, or if it is feasible, that we delete this information from our files. Your request must be in writing, and you should mail your request, including your policy number, name, address, and phone number, to:
